Iran Travel Tips

Iran Travel Tips

Financial

Iran currency

Iran official currency: Rial (IRR).

*Iran has 2 currencies; Rial and Toman.

Difference between Rial and Toman:

1 Toman = 10 Rials

When you go to restaurants, banks, exchange offices or you want to buy something, the currency that you'll face on fees, receipts or labels is Rial. Toman is the common vocal currency between people.

You can disassemble the last zero and convert Rial to Toman.

Exchange money

There are 2 exchange rates in Iran.

GOVERNMENTAL RATE and FREE RATE. Both are correct but government rate is always lower than the free rate.

How to know the exact exchange rate?

Currency Exchanging price is so much different from all international websites that show it.

So if you want to know how you can find the exact rate for exchanging money? We should say that exchange offices announce daily in Farsi websites.

You can use them with google translate help:

1.<http://www.tgju.org/currency>

2.<http://www.mex.ir/>

Common and uncommon currencies

EURO and USD are best currencies for exchange in Iran.

But you can exchange most of currencies in IKA exchange office.

Another suggestion for you between all exchange offices in Tehran is Olympic office

→ Olympic exchange office with the ability of exchanging all currencies to Rial for tourists with free rate is a good choice for you.

Address: No.154 – in front of Turkey Embassy – Istanbul Intersection – Ferdowsi Ave. – Tehran

Where to exchange money?

Banks: You can exchange your money in banks with Government rate

Exchange office: The best place to exchange your money is exchange offices with Free rate.

All big cities in Iran have exchange offices that we will introduce them to you in iran cities dictionary.

Brokers (Black Market): with Free rate

In Tehran, you can find most of the exchange offices and also many of these brokers in Ferdowsi Avenue.

Saadatrent Tips 1: Both Exchange offices and Brokers offer the same rate but DO NOT exchange your money in black market with brokers.

- Q: What should we do with our additional Rials when we want to return to our country?
A: you can exchange your Rials to Euro or Dollar in IKA exchange office. They will exchange your money only 2,000 – 3,000 IRR cheaper than exchange offices in Ferdowsi Avenue.

Credit cards and Debit cards

As you may know, for some reasons tourists can't use their credit cards here in Iran.

Saadatrent Tips 2: The best choice is to bring enough cash and exchange it to Rial.

Saadatrent Tips 3: If you finish your cash, you can use Mah Card. Mah Card is a service for foreign tourists which provide debit card for them with 10% wage.

For get more information or ordering these cards, call this number: +989128005948

Sim card

If you want to buy a sim card for your own, you can buy it from Hamrah-e Aval and Irancell.

These sim cards work for 50 days and you can charge their monetary credit whenever you want.

How to increase our sim card credit?

you should buy some sim card credits from markets or from your debit card. It will give you a password.

Iran cell sim card: Dial *141*password# Ok or green button

Hamrah-e Aval sim card: Dial *140*#password# Ok or green button

Internet

Since these days, internet has a huge and important place in our life, this should be one of your issues that how to stay connected in Iran? You may need internet for calling your friends and family or sharing your travel experience in social media.

So, you'll need internet with acceptable speed. Our suggestion is to use Pocket Wireless Modem.

About wireless modems

These modems work in almost everywhere and you can buy them from 5 to 10 Euros. At the same time many people can use it and it can work without an adaptor for 3-4 hours. then you can charge this modem with its adapter that is like android phone chargers.

These modems need a sim card in micro size to work and you can increase its credit by increase your sim card credit.

Driving

! Be careful while you are driving in Tehran and other big cities in Iran. Iranians may not drive well.

Speed limitations

The maximum speed on the different streets and highways of Iran is shown by traffic signs.

*We should mention, there is no road without speed limit in Iran.

Maximum speed in:

- Highways – inside the city: 80 Km/h
- Freeways – between cities: 110 – 120 Km/h
- Roads - between different cities: 80 – 90 Km/h

Traffic signs

All traffic signs are global and it is really necessary to respect comply with them, especially in places where parking the car is forbidden and there is the sign of carriage car with a crane you have not to park your car at all.

If crane took your car, you can get back your car 24 hours later. If this happens, call these numbers:
+989128935339

Traffic plan Map

You can find this map in Google map with this URL: <https://bit.ly/2GThP11>

*Be careful with capital or small letters.

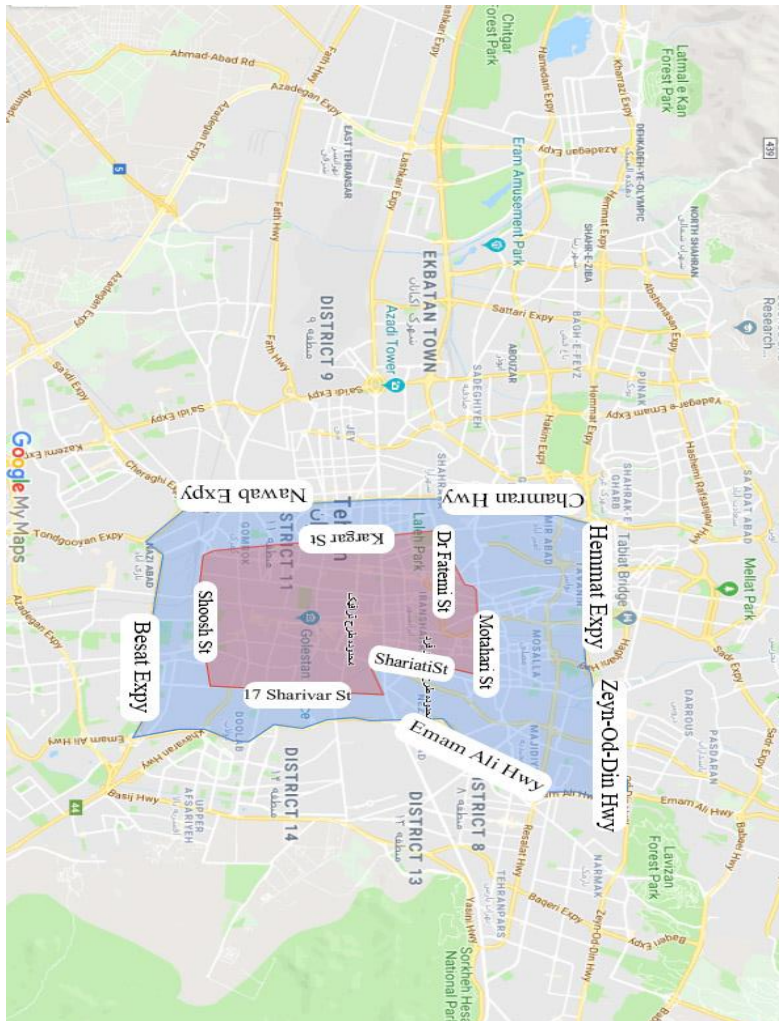

There are limitations on entering the parts of Tehran, especially the central part of the city. This limitation time sheet is:

- Saturdays to Wednesdays: from 6 a.m. till 19 p.m.
- Thursdays: from 6 a.m. till 13 p.m.
- Fridays: Free

If you want to enter these limited parts of Tehran, call us: +989128005948 to buy these packages for you. The price of these limits is 360,000 IRR.

Iran Travel Tips

Transportation

Subway: You can use subway for reaching all points in the city. One-way subway ticket is 10,000 IRR. Tehran, Isfahan, Ahwaz, Tabriz, Shiraz, Mashhad and Karaj have Metro line in the city.

Bus: you can use buses for traveling in a city or between cities in Iran. You can go to terminals for buying a ticket for traveling between Iran cities. We should mention that the buses price is cheap and you can find the list of price in there on boards.

Tehran terminals address:

East Terminal

- Address: Azadi Passenger Terminal, the northern side of Azadi Square, Tehran
- Phone: +982144663954

South Terminal

- Address: Khazaneh Passenger Terminal, in front of Qoo oil factory, Besat highway, Tehran
- Phone: +982155185390

West Terminal

- Address: Tehranpars Passenger Terminal, tehranpars three way, Damavand street, Tehran
- Phone: +982177864355

Beyhaghi Terminal

- Address: Beyhaghi Passenger Terminal, Beyhaghi park, Argentina square, Tehran
- Phone: +982188534384

Tehran west terminal has buses to travel to the western cities of Iran, the east terminal travels more to the eastern cities and the south terminal to the southern cities, but the Beyhaghi terminal buses travel to most of the big cities of Iran.

You can get tickets from 200,000 IRR to 800,000 IRR.

Taxi: Taxi prices in the cities of Iran are in agreement with the driver.

Taxis in Iran usually move in a specific line between 2 usual point and you can use them during their way. Their price is something between 50,000 and 100,000 IRR.

*Sometimes Taxis offer you to take you wherever you want as “Darbast”. Do not accept it because it is very unfair and expensive.

Snapp: Snapp is a transportation system with suitable system that works like Uber. When you choose your origin and destination in this application, it will show you the cost with IRR currency. Most of cities in iran work with this application and you can use their services. You can download it from this link: <https://snapp.ir/>

That make it obvious that Snapp is usually more expensive than taxi. It can be from 100,000 IRR to 500,000 IRR, but it is safer and more comfortable to use it.

Train: this is a great option especially for short distances between cities. Train ticket price can change daily and depends on seasons and cities.

Airplane: Plane ticket for short ways less than 500 km is about 2,500,000 IRR and 3,000,000 IRR and for longer ways it costs between 4,000,000 IRR and 7,000,000 IRR.

if you need a plane or train ticket, you may have some problems because you have to pay in online with Iranian debit cards. So you better call this number and let us to take these tickets for you:
+989128005948

*There is an offer for you that when you finish your itinerary or our suggested route, you can call us to book you a ticket to Tehran and return your rental car in each city that you are.

Iran Cities Airways Route Map

Accommodation

Hotels:

These prices are an average example of all hotels in Iran big cities:

Shopping and prices

Shopping Malls

All stuff you want to buy in shopping centers or malls, have price ticket on them with Rial or Toman currency and sellers usually tell you the price with Toman. So, it is better to ask from them to make sure.

We should mention that unfortunately you can find many fake products in Iran malls, so we suggest you to not buy any brands from Iran.

Traditional bazaars

The best place to buy each city souvenirs are old and traditional bazaars. Do not forget to use “Choone Zadan” trick to have some discount in your shopping. In our Iran cities dictionary, we will introduce you every cities souvenirs and handicrafts to know what you can buy from each place and give it as a gift to your family or friends.

Medical Tips

Medicines and pharmacies

You can buy many medicines without a prescription you just need to ask from pharmacy.

There are also boarding drug stores in Iran that you can buy medicines from there even in late nights.

Medicine costs

Local Tips in Iran

When you travel to Iran, there are some tips and suggestions that only local people will tell you. So here we are for you:

Water

Drinking water has a good quality in Iran big cities and people use it for drinking and other uses. But some cities don't have a good qualified water and you need to buy mineral water. Every small mineral water bottle is 10,000 IRR and big ones are 20,000 IRR

Safety

Iran is a safe country for traveling especially for solo travel. You can be 100% sure about that. But as it is so common in other countries, it is better to not go out alone for driving or walking between 12.a.m. and 5 a.m.

Another point is during your trip, you may become tired and need to take a nap in your car for some hours. In this position you better park your car near police station in the roads, restrooms that have markets and gas station or in the cities and then rest. Do not sleep in your car for long hours and in the intercity roads.

Your trip to all of Iran cities will be perfectly safe for you. But as a local tip, we recommend you to not travel to small border cities in Southeast of Iran.

As you should know, drinking or having alcoholic drinks are forbidden in Iran and you should be really careful about this situation and do not accept these drinks from people who you don't know and do not have them with yourself especially in your car.

**if any dangerous situation happens for you, please send us a lice location and we will immediately help you and call police and your embassy at the same time. ****

Special months in Iran

Ramadan: Iranian Muslims fast during Ramadan month. If you travel to Iran in this month, all restaurants and cafes will be closed during the day, till the sunset time and after Adan, all restaurant and cafes will be open till 3,4 a.m.

Muharram: In the first two weeks of this month, the Iranians are mourning for the martyrdom of Imam Hussein. The ninth and tenth day of Muharram, Tasua and Ashura, the entire city, includes malls, museums and restaurants are closed. And you can visit the ceremonies of these special days in different cities of Iran.

Iranian hospitality

Iranian warm hospitality is so famous in the world especially between tourist who traveled to Iran. There is an expression that says “Hospitality is made in Iran.”

Due to this, many local people in sights, hotels or restaurants or even when you’re walking in the street, like to talk to you and even take a selfie with you.

They may even invite you to their houses for lunch or a cup of tea. This may happen in cities that have less tourists. Maybe that looks weird for you but inviting someone in your house even when you barely know them is a part of our culture. We cannot say it is a bad thing or good thing. We can just say that you should be cautious.

Inside the cities

Iranian calendar

First of all, we should mention that, Iranian calendar is different from Gregorian calendar in the USA and Europe. You can buy a pocket calendar or install a solar calendar on your phone.

The weekend in Iran

The weekend in Iran is Friday. In this day Banks and exchange offices are close but other places like restaurants, cafes and also attractions, museums and shopping malls are open.

In the weekends, especially in Friday, restaurants and cafes become so crowded in big cities like Tehran, so you better choose some fewer famous restaurants and cafes in the city.

We also suggest you to anywhere you want to go, first search it in google map or TripAdvisor to get information like the address, quality and rate of that place.

Working hours in banks and exchange offices

Exchange offices:

- Weekdays: from 9 till 16.
- Thursdays: from 9 till 14.

Banks:

- Weekdays: from 7:30 till 15:30
- Thursdays: from 7:30 till 12:30

The police

In Iran you can find traffic police with blue clothes and white and blue cars and the police with green clothes and white and green cars.

barbershop

It will probably happen for you that you feel that you need to get a haircut in the city or country that you are traveling in it. Men and women have separated barbershops in Iran.

Iran barbershop salons are in good condition for cleanliness. The cost of getting a haircut for men is usually between 300,000 to 400,000. But prices for women barbershops are much different and you need to ask from them.

Between the cities

When you travel between cities with car, we recommend to only buy patrol, water and snacks from markets and Do not eat in the Cross-roads Restaurants, because they usually have low quality food with expensive price.

There are also Toll booths on inter-city roads .You have to pay some money in these booths. Its price is between 5,000 and 50,000 Rials. Be sure to stop and pay in these booths, otherwise you will be fined 300,000 Rials.

You can use Waze or google map for finding ways.
